“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Glyndon C. Pruitt:

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we all know what it feels like to lose one of our loved ones to death. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through.

He promises that the day is soon to come in which he will wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5)

He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29)

Until his words are fulfilled may each of you continue to take comfort in him.##imported-begin##Lenette Horton##imported-end##

“ Through the years, I had an opportunity to have several cases against Glyndon. Although Glyndon vigorously represented his clients, he always conducted himself in a gentlemanly manner. Glyndon was a confident, caring and effective lawyer. I am sure that he served his many clients well. He will be missed by those of the Georgia Bar who were fortunate enough to have worked with him.

My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and many friends.

With sympathy,

“ Dear Deanna, Carl, Judy, David and Dan:
*My thoughts and prayers are with you all in this sad, sad time. I cannot begin to express to you what Mr. Pruitt meant to me. During the period of time in which I worked for him, I learned so much about a true Southern gentleman. Not only was he an awesome attorney, he was a great man. I based my decisions about the path I wanted my career to follow, on the things I learned from him. He touched my life in a number of ways. If one spent even the smallest amount of time with him, it was obvious how deeply he loved his family. He will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Patty Terrazas

One of the first things I noted about him was that he was a true gentleman. I will miss seeing him in the halls at GJAC. He is in GOD's memory now awaiting the unfolding of the resurrection hope ...

“ Mr. Pruitt, such a southern gentleman with never a bad word to say about anyone. What I remember most was how he was always there to help his friend, James Venable, when Mr. Venable could not help himself. Mr. Pruitt never turned his back on a friend, and his reputation for honesty was never questioned. Mr. Pruitt, I will miss

“If Your Honor Please,” were the first words I heard Mr. Pruitt speak when I first came to Gwinnett courts approximately 20 years ago. His kindness and courtesy will not be forgotten. He spoke with such distinction and argued each case, no matter how large or small, with the same passion. He loved the law and he loved to win. Though his name may be silenced, he will never be forgotten as a man of great wisdom and character.##imported-begin##Becky Pearrow, Court Reporter, Gwinnett Superior Court##imported-end##

“ Michael writes: It is now 33 years since I first met Mr Pruitt, when as a 12 year old I came to stay with the Pruitt family for a while that Summer. I was very lucky to be taken into the Pruitt family and treated as a son. As a young English boy many miles away from home, Glyndon became my honorary American father. Over the years I was fortunate that it was possible to stay in touch with the whole family and to get to know Glyndon and Deanna as an adult and not just as a child. Glyndon was a strong man with sincere convictions – he was a role model who I respected enormously. Time with him was always a joy and privilege. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to know him. The world is a poorer place now he has gone and many people will miss him enormously. Our love and prayers are with Deanna and the whole family.##imported-begin##Michael, Catherine, Sarah and Tom Newey##imported-end##

He was so generous, always giving with a smile. Although he seemed to be quiet and reserved, when he talked about family, it was obvious that he loved you all so much and was crazy about those grandkids. He will be greatly missed by all. “ Glyndon was opposing counsel in the first court case of my legal career. It was 1983, in Gwinnett Superior Court, and the Judge was having a hard time staying awake on the bench. Glyndon was always the gracious gentleman, and he never commented that the Judge may not have heard his entire argument. Glyndon was one of those elder statesman of the legal community that you thought would always be there. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Anthony M. Zezima##imported-end##

“ Deanna, Carl, Judy, David, and Dan: Glyndon was my friend and mentor for so many years that I cannot find the words to express my feelings for your loss. He loved each of you so much and we would often talk at court about what was going on in your lives with your families. He was always such a lion that I thought he would go on forever. The next time I have a problem in a trial he will not be there to help me as he always did each time in the past. I just wish we had got to try that last case together like we had planned. It was always an honor for people to even now associate me with him. I loved hm dearly and will greatly miss him. I am so sorry for your loss. Love, Walt.##imported-begin##Walt M.
