“ *Dear Juanita,
I was sorry to hear about the passing of your precious husband, Gordon! What a humble & sweet spirited man he was! I know we've been out of contact with ya'll for a long time but we will never forget that time we got to visit with you two in your home when we came to introduce ourselves as (James) being your Deacon. Ya'll were such a sweet couple & we enjoyed times of seeing you after that & hearing you tell about the Christmas cactus that we brought you, doing so well. You were so proud of it.*

I am so sorry that we will be gone this wknd so won't be able to come to the service on Saturday & see you & hug on you. Please receive our heartfelt condolences & we will be praying for you, precious one. Cling to the precious memories God has given you of your beloved husband.

*Love in Christ,
James & Cheryl Dutton*
