“ I remember Grace walking the roads in the neighborhood. She'd stop at one house, then another and another. She'd sit and chat for awhile and then move on. It was hard when she was no longer able to be in the neighborhood, she always had a smile on her face. From my family to yours, our condolences go out to you. She is home with the Lord now and has no cares or worries. I'm sorry that I didn't attend the service but I mistakenly thought that the service was at the Walnut Grove church. We arrived there around 3:15 and found no one at all. We waited about 5 mins and thought we had missed the service, we did see the casket .
