“ Daddy, you know our hearts, I know you are close to us now, please be the daddy we knew you to be and take care of Becky. I love you and miss you so much and never has a low moment came in my life that I have not felt your strong hand on my shoulder encouraging me. We need you Daddy and we need our heavenly father, please send the angels to guide and direct us and send all the angels to look over Becky and get her back to where she needs to be. We need prayers and angels more now than ever in all the years you've been gone. WE love you Daddy and miss you. Your loving daughter##imported-begin##Connie Knight-Beers##imported-end##

“ *Daddy,
It's been so long, a year now since I saw you and nearly as long since we spoke. It will never get easier will it Daddy, time does not heal all wounds, it seems they just become more painful. If love could bring you back daddy, you would be with us now. If only Love was enough, I know it was enough to keep you going for so long, I know you loved us and I know you knew we loved you. Maybe love is enough, I can't really say right now, it still hurts too much loosing you.##imported-begin##Connie Knight-Beers##imported-end##*

“ *Daddy, Tomorrow will be one full month since you left us, Friday was the hardest day of my life, I awoke to the phone ringing and ringing and ringing, finally I worked up the nerve to answer it and it was Kathy my neighbor, she thought she might have left her oven on. The whole time I relived the Friday morning you left and the pain is still as new as it was that morning. I miss you Daddy I am so tired of being strong, I want to scream and cry, why? I want answers, but instead I find none, only the memory of losing you way to soon. I know you are resting now Daddy and that you are with those you loved who left before you, but I am selfish, I still wish for one more hour, just one more hour. I love you Daddy. Your daughter

“ Dear Judy,
Daddy would never want you to think you didn't do enough, we did all we could and the rest was in God's hands. The doctors were not the problem, Daddy was sick and his body grew weary and he could not do it anymore, he told you so. God may have taken Daddy so soon to keep him from further suffering. You saw the peace in his face, Daddy saw something beautiful that morning, he saw the love of God and was welcomed home to rest. We all wish we could do things differently, take things back, spend more time but none of us could keep Daddy with us when Jesus called. I cry everyday and ask why, but honestly it was just his time, don't blame yourself, Daddy loved you and you were there for him, everyday, you called him, maybe just to bug him, but you called and even though he threaten to move occasionally, ... He loved every minute of the time you so freely gave. You made Daddy feel loved, you gave your heart so freely Judy you did your job and I am proud of you and appreciate you. None of us should feel like we could have done more, Daddy was ready to go home, and he is home, resting. For this I am thankful as I am thankful for each and every one of you and the strengths each of us poccess to hold each others weaknesses together, we can't make it through this alone, I am so glad I have all of you. I love you all, Just as Daddy did. Were all just good simple people, just like daddy, we all can be proud.##imported-begin##Connie Knight-Beers##imported-end##

“ Papa,
Everyday the kids ask about you, they try so hard but they don't really understand why you had to leave us. I am trying hard to understand it all myself, and trying to help them understand it as well. I know that you are in a better place and I know that you are looking over us all, even now you have your hands full with all of us, but I know that you wouldn't want it any other way. Growing up I remember that you always let us play and do our own thing, but you always watched us over your paper to make sure we were okay and being good, as an adult I found it comforting to see you do the same thing with my children, quietly and calmly keeping watch over your paper, never seeming to mind the noise and wildness as they played in the floor under our feet. Please watch over my children, especially Lorelei, I can use all the help I can get keeping a eye on her. Thank you so much for never judging me and always making me feel that no matter what I did, wrong or right, you would always be there. Papa we miss you so much and even though we never said it enough I love you Papa.###imported-begin###Laura Kemp###imported-end###

“ To my Mother, Louise, Brothers, Ronny, Melvin and John and to my sisters, Judy, Becky, and Sharon.

I found this beautiful saying and I believe that if Daddy could he would pass these words our way. Happy New Year to each of you, and Happy New Year Daddy.

To my Family and loved ones:

*Dont grive for me, now I'm free
Im following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love to work or play
Task left undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of day*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes these things I too will miss*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My lifes been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times a loved ones touch*

*Perhaps my time seemed all to brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now - He set me Free
Love*

“ Pops, I miss you! Today came and went without that familiar telephone call. Bhutta created a mess in pakistan and bush profoundly gave another ignorant speach on how the economy is " not so bad" I feel the peace that you left with me and know that you are with me in spirit, but I know now that I am alone. Liam, Hannah and Fiona miss you! I find peace knowing that one day our paths will cross again and we will once again share the things we enjoyed.###imported-begin###John W. Knight###imported-end##

“ Dear Daddy,

Today is Christmas Day, our first ever without you. We were there with you at home, all your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. I think each and everyone of us sat quietly in your chairs for atleast a time, never a glance that I took to your chair found it empty, in fact it was full of laughter and love.. You may not have been with us in body Daddy, but we all felt the peace and comfort of your spirit. Daddy I hope you are looking down upon us, I hope you can see our strengths and weaknesses, and please Daddy reach out to those of us who need you most, the rest of us know our "Grady" time will come. Daddy please stay close to Ronny, he misses you so Daddy, he needs to feel the comfort of you Daddy, we all loved you so but a bond between a father and his first son is special, hold him close to your heart and we will watch out for him here. In fact Daddy you can trust us all to look over each other, Becky will never not find anyone on the other end of the phone when she needs it, Judy will probably move from one to the other of us trying to take care of us, as she so loves to do, Melvin will keep you love of wheeling and dealing alive, you taught him well, Sharon will take some time, but we won't let her down, her heart has suffered twice this year. She needs a special prayer from above, please say it for her, Johnny is going home to Florida, he is happy there and that is where he belongs, we will stay close to him, try to call and visit more often. We all miss you Daddy, especially Momma but she is strong, she will lead us on and we will watch over her and not leave her alone, please don't worry about her, the rest of us will do your job here for you now, I only pray we make you proud. “ Dear Daddy,

It has been more than a week now since you left us. Christmas is upon us and even though the blessing of the birth of Jesus is with us, our hearts still hurt so deeply for you. Our minds know you are safe now resting in the arms of Jesus and will be spending a glorious Christmas there with him and those you love who went before you. You left us so suddenly Daddy if only I had one more day, there are so many things I would say to you, I would love to tell you what an impact you had on my life, that you were an inspiration to us all and a great Father, or maybe I would just sit quietly and watch you read your paper and have your morning coffee as you so loved to do. Life here will never be the same Daddy, as I know life in heaven will never be as well. You were a beautiful blessing to us here, and you are now a beautiful blessing to the heavens above. Heaven is a very lucky place, I know they know your worth there and how much you were loved here and will be missed, I trust you will be safe there Daddy, never sick again and never weary, strong again as we remember you so well. I know today if there are Christmas Miracles, then you know how much we miss you and somehow a little bit of you will remain here with us this Christmas and for every one to follow and hopefully a little bit of us will be there for you to cherish and remember the way it was. I love you Daddy, I pray that God will bless and keep you until someday we meet again.

Your loving Daughter, Connie##imported-begin##Connie Knight-Beers##imported-end##

“ Father,

Strength, Courage, Dignity and Honour. Those are the things that You learned as a soldier and applied them in your honorable life. More importantly those are the things that you taught me as a father would, along with Pride, Humility and Love. You were never a man to express your emotions but they were never questioned.

As I look backwards in my book of life I am honoured to have been able to share the 38 years that we had, As I look forward at the unwritten book of my life. I realize that only the things that you taught me will get me by. I look at my own son now and know that I must carry on with the honour of being a Knight and share the knowledge that you gave me.

I thank you and vow to hold your memory forever and continue to make you proud. Seven words seen so miniscule in the span of time, but those seven words, Strength, Courage, Dignity, Honour, Pride, Humility and Love , give me the strength to carry such a honorable banner through life.

*Thank you Father,
Your Son,*

“ For my popa there are not enough words! I love you Popa and I only hope you knew how much! I wasn't always around, but I cherished every moment I was. You helped me to grow into the person I am now and you helped my mom make sure we grew up; you made sure my mom grew up! There was never a chance for me to thank you for all of your years and for helping us out our whole lives. There will never be a day I don't miss my popa. I know that if there is a heaven, thats where you are. Looking wonderful in the suit Granny put you in! I can only hope that when this life is over for me, that you are at the gates waiting for me! There will be no one else I want to see!!!!###imported-begin##Doria Gantt##imported-end##
