“ I am just seeing Grants obituary for the first time. I knew Grant and Lee Wood from Bowling. I loved them both and there loving spirits towards all and each other. Grant had the best hugs! We would see them out late at night in their car going to eat. Such a fun life they had. I have missed you both so much. I knew when Lee passed away, I think 8 years earlier than Grant. I can just see you two! Party On!! Sending my sympathy to his wife now and his family. I know how much you will all be missing him. What a great guy!! Teresita McPherson 10/24/2023

“ *Nancy-
My sincere & deepest sympathy to you & the family. What a wonderful & funny man he was-he always had a joke for me & always made me smile. He did so much for others & will be dearly missed but knowing Grant he would want us to celebrate his life until we see him again. It was a blessing when the two of you met & how happy you made each other but just remember he's still with you everyday.*

“ My deepest sympathies to Grant's family.

From working with him day to day to bowling with him he was a professional and a gentleman. He conducted himself with class. His words and actions reflected his integrity. I tried to mirror these traits in him. He will always be remembered and greatly missed.
