“ *We were so saddened to hear of Grant's passing. My son, Blake was a classmate of Grant's and played basketball with him in middle school. He thought a lot of him and talked highly of him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God give you the comfort and strength that you need. “ Hello Blanchard family:

I met Grant when my daughter Laura was at Scottish Rite fighting cancer herself. He was one of the most positive, energetic, and enthusiastic young men I have ever met. Laura introduced several of her friends to Grant and were also very impressed with how mature and kind he was. As the father of a cancer patient, I can share in some of your ordeal, but I can not truly understand what your feeling now. Grant is no longer in pain and is at peace. I will always remember the impression he made on me and my family. Laura is walking in a cancer fundraiser on behalf of the AFLAC Center next month. If it's okay, she wants to walk in honor of Grant and the courageous battle he fought.

Sincerely,

Gene Stewart

“ I don't know if you remember me or not. My name is Angela Brown and I am a teacher at Rock Springs Elementary. I remember Grant and what a happy, wonderful child he was. I am so sorry to hear about his loss. I also lost my son, Thomas Brown, a little over a year ago. I understand how you feel, as only another parent that has lost a child can understand. Your family is in my prayers. If you ever need to talk, please let me know. God has never left your side. He will be always be with you. I know that Thomas was there to welcome Grant to heaven. It is those of us left behind that are suffering.###imported-begin##Angela Brown##imported-end##

“ There are no words to express the sorrow at the loss of a loved one, especially one so young. Carol (Blanchard) and I have only been married a short time but I have been here to support her with the news of Grant's condition . My deepest sympathies go out to Eric and Sandy, Mitchel, Barb, Chris, Lee, and the rest of the family and all of Grant's friends. You all will remain in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Rick Wilson##imported-end##

“ Dear Blanchard Family, We are all so very sorry for the loss of your precious Grant. My sister Annmarie Keogh has kept him in her heart since she met him last April at Scottish Rite. She always asked us to keep Grant in our prayers. I know from talking to Annmarie that Grant was such a sweet, kind and very brave young man. She said he would look her in the eyes and ask, "How are you doing Mrs. Keogh?" Annmarie and Anthony were blessed to have met Grant, and I know they will never forget him. I pray that God gives you all the strength you need to get through this until you join Grant in Heaven someday.
Sincerely, Rosanne Zesiger##imported-begin##Rosanne Zesiger##imported-end##
