“ Our family is so sorry to hear of your loss. SGT Williams served with our son during their time in the National Guard and during their time in Afhanistan. They ran a "Tough Mudder" together shortly upon their return. Our son, SGT Josh Bryan, has always spoken so highly of SGT Williams and really appreciated his support during their deployment together. Many of those young men developed a strong brotherhood taking care of one another during their time away from family. They became family and Gregg will surely be missed! Our prayers are with you all! We are forever grateful for SGT Williams' honorable and courageous service to our state and our Nation! May our Heavenly Father wrap him in His loving arms. We will meet him again and share an eternity with our Lord and Savior who loves us so! Please find comfort in HIs word and promises!

*Sincerely in Love and Prayers,
Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bryan and family*
