Thank you Ruth for everything... your special words, your thoughts and concern, and all your help and support. We are all feeling the loss and still stunned. Greg was a very caring, loving, generous and thoughtful person. He worked very hard and, as you said, he took great pride in his work, and rightly so. He will definitely be missed more than words can express.

Thank you so much for your encouraging and comforting words. Even though I have never met you, I feel like I know you through Greg. He was always telling me about his work and those he was doing work for. He mentioned your name numerous times in recent months. Thank you again. Your kind words mean so much to me. We will miss him greatly. We already do. Love and much appreciation, Carla

“ Dear family of Gregory: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is such a tragedy for all of us and when it touches us personally, few of find the comfort that we search for. And death itself leaves so many of us with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in God's Word the Bible. The Bible teaches that soon God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8). God also promises to reunite us with our dear loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth and we can live life to the full in paradise that will be filled with peace, happiness and perfect health for everyone. What a wonderful hope and prospect this is. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4; Psalms 37:10,11,29; Isaiah 33:24). As you read the above texts in your Bible, may the wonderful hope they give us along with loving memories, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Sincerely: David Cowles
