“ I've practiced law in Gwinnett County for most of my career. As a young lawyer, Harold was always a warm face and personality in the courtroom. I'm saddened to see that he has left us and that I didn't have a chance to say goodbye.

Harold - you may not have known it, but you were a positive influence on me in the courtroom. You will be missed.

“ I had the honor and sincere pleasure to work with Harold as a court bailiff. He was one of the kindest, most genuine people I've met in my life. He "loved" his family and his faith was an inspiration to everyone who was fortunate to be a part of his life. God gave him a smile that will never be forgotten. I was blessed to call him my friend. With deepest sympathy, Joe D'Ambra.
