“ I only knew "Brother Harry" as so many lovingly called him for a short time but he impacted my life with his smile and his gentleness and kindness. I will be forever grateful to God for sharing him with me and allowing me to see up close someone like him. He was always wanting to know how everyone else was..didn't dwell on anything sad or unpleasant..always had an uplifting and kind word to say to you. I just found out about his glorification on Feb 23rd so I am a little shocked but happy I will see him again one day and that maybe he is meeting my Mother who was 81 and killed in the tragic tornado in AL in 2011. They are not just stepping on the streets of Glory but I know they are shouting...what a blessing he has been to me. Thank you Lord for Brother Harry, my friend and brother in the Lord.##imported-begin##Kaye Mayers##imported-end##

I'm so sorry that I can't there with you all. I loved Harry and he was such a dedicated Christian. I was always so proud to say that he was my cousin. My prayer is that God will give all of you comfort and peace knowing that Harry is in his Heavenly Home now and one day, we as Christians will see him again. “ Dear Jorene and family, I admit I cried when I heard Bro. Harry had gone home...but then very shortly I was joyful that he finished his race and finished it well!...I imagine along with the Lord he was greeted with so many who have gone on before...I thought of Peg Price and maybe Troy, who probably questioned why it took him so long to get there!...He was a blessings to 100's and I count it a priviledge to have known him...
Jorene If you need anything ...please call on us...I love you too! and will keep you all covered in prayer...Brenda Angel##imported-begin##Brenda Angel##imported-end##

“ Jorene and family: We are saddened at the loss of one of the finest man that we have had the privilege of knowing. He was always a blessing when we saw him. It is a great loss to us too! We pray that God will keep his arms around you in the days ahead. May he comfort you as his word promises and give you peace as you have to face life without Brother Harry. We know that we will be united with him again and I don't believe it will be that long. He is at home with Jesus and his loved ones and he waits for us to join him. If there is anything that we can do, please don't hesitate to let us know. May God's love and grace be with you. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. We love you.###imported-begin###JoAnn and Howard Norfolk###imported-end##

“ Frank and I want to send our condolences to Jorene and all the family. Our hearts go out to each one and to let you know that we are praying for the Lord to comfort each one of you and give you peace. We will always treasure all the fond memories of life shared at Free Chapel and the wisdom and grace and the heart Brother Harry had for so many. He was a perfect example of what 2nd Timothy 4:7 says, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” We do not look at him as being gone, for He will always be remembered in our hearts, as a fine and upstanding Christian gentleman that he was and has left this earth with many, many spiritual sons and daughters. He was a fine example of a Christian Dad, Granddad and a Christian Brother to so many who did not have this opportunity of having one in their own lives. My fondest memory is when we had the opportunity of having you and Brother Harry at our home one day for Thanksgiving with several other friends from Free Chapel. We prayed and had asked the Lord for a special blessing to be given to someone of the Lord's choosing and we then placed a special decorative plate under the seat of one of the chairs and it was Brother Harry that God allowed to sit in that blessed chair. We love you Jorene and pray for God's Angels to continue to keep you and all your family in the psalm of His hand and in the precious shadow of His wings. Thank you so much for sharing Brother Harry with so many people. You two are dearly and forever loved.##imported-begin##Frank and Mary Dillon##imported-end##
