“ How can I ever explain someone so special in earthly terms when she was an angel walking this earth! Heather was a great listener with time for everyone from all walks of life. Our endless conversations about life and the depth of her soul, spirit and character was what always amazed me when she was still so young. She was as selfless and as determined to fight as anyone I have ever known. She was always strong and positive even in the face of negativity from others. She accepted everyone "as is" regardless of age, race, religion, culture or status in life. This princess chose her knight at a very young age because even then she was perceptive enough to know he was "the one" that would love her and stand by her side through anything that came their way and she was right! I am so blessed to have known Heather and we should all celebrate her life as she was truly one of a kind and an amazing soul whose spirit touched so many lives.

God gave her to us for a short time but she will live on in each of us for an eternity!

I love you Heather,

“ John and Jenna so sorry to hear of your loss. From what I can tell in the pictures Heather seemed to be a very happy, outgoing, and a very sweet young lady. She will be missed a great deal. John I hope that you can find comfort in that your sister is no longer suffering but that she lives on in your hearts and memories. Cancer is not fair and it always finds a way to the most beautiful and hard fighting people. Again sorry for your loss and you all are in our thoughts and prayers.
