“ The Bahamonde Family

The Hands that made the world and gave the sun and the moon their light are the tiny hands of a baby born Sept 27, 1949. Johnny may be gone from our sight, hearing, touch and memory but never from our hearts. His presence and love will always be with family, because that is who Johnny was a loving person

With my deepest Sympathy to all of my family for this great loss. I know mami was their to show him the way I love you all##imported-begin##Nancy and Barry Erickson##imported-end##

“ Diana, Michelle, John and Aidan:
So sorry to hear about Hector. He was such a sweet person and always a joy to be around. He will be missed by all who knew him. I had the privilege of working with him at Oriental Weavers and he always spoke of how proud he was of his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I hope that some comfort can come to the family knowing that the lives that they have touched were in turn touched by John also. I truly believe that those that have passed realize more than we who haven't, the value and worth in life. And they, above all else, want those who survive them not to lose too much of their lives in mourning, but to enjoy and rejoice in that which they no longer can enjoy.

Remember him in what you do, but live your life happily for him. You have that choice - he does not. You can do it for him.##imported-begin##Darrel Gower##imported-end##

“ One of the great things about being in sales is the people you meet. I was lucky enough to meet Hector through Sphinx. I would always look forward to seeing and spending time with him at markets. He was fun, upbeat and always professional. I will miss him dearly - markets will never be the same. Rest in peace my friend, John##imported-begin##John Levanchy##imported-end##
