“ Helen touched many lives thru education . The Bible says that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous, (Acts24:15). Imagine many more being touched by the wonderful gifts that Helen shared.

“Helen and I worked together at Loganville Primary School. I taught Kindergarten and she was one of mine and my student's "lunchroom ladies." When I started working at Loganville Primary and Helen and I got to know each other she adopted me as a daughter because my mom lived in New York. So when I went to lunch I would say "Hi Mom" although Helen was only 15 years or so older than me! She made my days and we had so many laughs together. She would always give me an extra biscuit! I loved Helen very much. I left teaching in 2003 and didn't see Helen too much after that. She was a wonderful person and I was blessed to have had her in my life. Please know her whole family are in my thoughts and prayers. I send my sincere condolences.

“ Even though I am just now finding out that Helen passed away, I woke this morning remembering how she, Peggy and I were such good buddies in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades at Loganville. She is now healed of her debilitating illness, free to soar with her friends and family who are in heaven. Donald and family, I know you will miss her terribly and pray that God's hand of comfort be with you. Vonceil Taylor
