“ The loss of a loved one can be one of the most heartbreaking experiences that we are forced to endure. Our Heavenly Father made a reassuring promise at Isaiah 25:8 that "death will be swallowed up forever". May this scripture, along with many others, be a source of relief and a reminder of God loving promises awaiting fulfillment in the near future.

“ *My dearest Kathy,
No words could fully express my deepest feelings of sympathy for you and your sons. I know losing your mother is a great loss and one that you will carry forever. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God bless you with courage during this time of sorrow and strength for the days ahead.
With all my love,
