

Helen Wilhemina Smalls

June 17, 1918 - September 4, 2007

Helen Wilhemina Smalls was the first of four children born to the late William Smalls and Lucille Smalls in Charleston, South Carolina, on June 17, 1918. Helen left Charleston at the young age of 16 years old, and went to New York City to start a new life. She lived in Manhattan, the Bronx, and spent 41 years in Brooklyn, New York.

She pursued a nursing career, and after the proper training, became a licensed practical nurse. She always expressed her fondness of working and taking care of children. She retired from Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York.

She never married, or had children of her own, but was endeared to her grand niece and nephews. They have fond memories of her kindness.

Helen was very active in her church, Newlots Reform Church, out of Brooklyn, New York. It was her pleasure to work with the elderly, providing meals and entertainment for them.

She spent her last few years in the care of her niece, Rosemary Harrison, grand nephew Omar Turner, and grand nieces Sharrain Ojuromi, and Haleemah Turner.

God called Helen home on Tuesday, September 4, 2007. She lived a long, prosperous life, and now she is at peace with the Lord. Her memory will be cherished by her cousin Dorothy (Edwin) Francis of New York City, her nephews Melvin (Ernestine) Dunston of Teaneck, New Jersey, and Robert Dunston of Buffalo, New York, her niece Helen C. McDaniel of Houston, Texas, also a host of other relatives and friends.

“ When someone we love die we have great pain and sorrow. The Bible can give us the comfort we need. Revelation 21:3-5 and Isaiah 25:8 has been a source of comfort for me. Please read them in your spare time. You may request a free tract { When someone you love die} from anyone of Jehovah's Witnesses. May the God of peace comfort you.##imported-begin##jeanie##imported-end##
