“ Mr. Henry was a good man. My father assigned me to work with him at the Gwinnett County Schools maintenance department and I learned a lot from him. Mr. Henry was an exceptional carpenter and I learned some carpentry from him. He was an exceptional man and I learned a lot from him about what it meant to be a man. He cared about people and he loved his family. He believed in doing what was right. I have a lot of good memories of him. He will be missed.
