“ When I reflect on Don, I think of his kindness and warmth. I have had the pleasure of living next to Shirley and Don for several years. I will never forget how they instantly welcomed me to the neighborhood. I was always excited to enjoy a quick chat with Don while we were outside at the same time. I knew I would have a laugh and leave the conversation a bit more positive and much more joyful. During each interaction, his genuine heart and spirit were evident.

I will miss seeing Don ride Ruby up and down the street on the golf cart. I will miss his gentle smile and thoughtful words.

Don lived a beautiful life and leaves an incredible legacy for his family. I am sending all my love to Shirley and the rest of the family during this difficult time.

Rest well in Heaven, Don.

We will see you again.

Love,

Breana

“ Don was a treasure... who was ever a happier sweeter more caring guy than Don? He loved his family, sure, but he cared for neighbors, customers, strangers too. We will miss him.
