“ Henry Eyer, Jr.

“ What a shock seeing he name Henry Eyer, Jr in the memory section of the H2U newsletter. I doubled checked and it was true. Billy and I have memories with Karen and Henry that we will cherish. Like when we met Henry and Karen at their mountain property lot. It was beautiful and all but the event that stays in my mind is when Billy and I were following the Eyers off this steep wooded mountain lot. That Henry drove down this unpaved mountain almost vertical and somehow we didn't flip over. But I remember holding on with white knuckles.

Our sincere condolences to you Karen and the family in your loss and we will keep you in our prayers. God be near you.

“ Dear Karen and family

Upon returning from vacation I was stunned to see Henry's name in the Chicago paper. I don't know if you remember me from Illinois Bell, but I remember Henry and you vividly, and working to facilitate your family's transfer to Bell South. Henry was a wonderful person, a great employee and friend, and certainly one of the nicest people I have known (especially his little smile). I can still hear his voice like it was yesterday. Only outstanding people are remembered that way. My sincere condolences to you and your family.##imported-begin##Paula Krause Paradis##imported-end##

“ Dear Eyer Family,

I am so sorry for the loss of Henry. "God comforts us in all our tribulation....." 2Corinthians1:4. When I lose a loved one I ususally find comfort in the bible's promise in Acts 24:15, which talks about the resurrection hope. It is like my family went away for a while and they will be returning to me after their journey. That gives me so much comfort. I hope that you are able to find comfort from that scripture too.##imported-begin##Junia Prosper##imported-end##

“ My mother's memorial service is scheduled for this coming Tuesday, May 20, 2008 at Tim Stewart, Snellville. I was looking through the list of current visitations when I saw Hank's name. To say I was shocked was an understatement. During my career at BellSouth, starting in 1980 and ending 1996, I had many occasions to interact with Hank and thought of him as a timeless standard and a good friend with a quick wit.

I am sorry for your loss. I had many fond memories of him and I'm sure his loss is felt by many.

My condolences to you all.

Respectfully Submitted,
