“ I miss my Buddy. I miss hearing his stories. I know I've heard them a hundred times but I would like to hear just one more.

You were a friend to all who knew you. You never met a stranger. Definitely one of the kindest souls I have ever met.

Until Valhalla my dear friend.

“ I am so saddened with the news Toby, I consider a brother, shared with me that his best friend, his Father, had passed.

As a child I always felt Mr. Farmer was a father figure to me. He was such a loving person and have always had an enormous amount of respect for him. I always admired the Father-Son relationship between Mr. Farmer and Toby. Without either of them ever knowing, that had such a big impact of how I treat my son. I continue to think back to those memories of Mr. Farmers patience, kindness, and unconditional love he gave his family ...such a kind and gentle soul.

I remember having many dinners together and Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, Toby, and Tracie always treating me as part of their family. I have always appreciated the love you all shared with me.

Thank you, Mr. Farmer, for being such a positive influence and being so gentle and kind with me as a child, I will miss you.

Toby, Tracie, and Linda... family, and close friends I am so sorry for your loss. Our family sends our warmest thoughts and love to you all in this difficult time.

*Love from my family to yours,
Bill, Karolina, and Maximilian Ferreira*
