“ Today Mom (Mable Dorriety Harris) and I talked about Clayton. He was such a kind person and we loved him so much. My Mom is still so upset that she can not discuss her times with him without tears. They were close first cousins as Aunt Louise and my grandmother, her sister, Alma, were so close. I have such fond memories of Clayton. He loved to visit Panama City Beach, which is one of my favorite places. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

I was with Clayton in Vietnam in 1965-6 and just learned of his death this month, a year later! We had good times together, even in combat. He was a great man, person, and officer. One could count on him being there for you! As a fellow Georgia Tech alumni, I hold another special connection with Clayton. May God continue to bless you in these years,
