“ As a child, Bo was a frequent visitor to my Grandparents home. He was a close friend of my uncle, Charles David Still and my mother, Sarah Sikes. He was always glad to see me. Many years have gone by since I have seen him or his family. I am so sorry for your loss. Remember all the good times and I know there were many. Blessing to your family. Brenda Smith Huntsberry.

Thanks for sharing these photos. They show such love of family and simple pleasures that this life offers--raising a garden, sharing a meal, mixing those delicious sausages, loving a grandchild, having one or more dogs to love you unconditionally. We are so glad that he had such a long life surrounded by so many who loved him. Thinking of you all and praying that God comforts you during this time.
