“ To know Herman was to love him, he was such a special person. He will be missed every day from those that knew him. Still so difficult to believe that he’s gone, but never forgotten. Bobby & I loved when he was around, always a great time in his presence. We will never forget his sense of humor, his voice and his great big bear hugs. There was one time that I remember him hanging out at our house and I offered him popcorn for a snack, but he said he didn’t like popcorn....before I knew I was refilling the bowl from my ginormous bag from the festival that day.....when Herman said “what kinda popcorn is this?” It was kettle corn, my favorite and apparently his new favorite! It was so funny, he couldn’t stop eating it and we just laughed and laughed. Herman was just so much fun to be around, we are so heartbroken that he’s moved on. With so much Love,
Bobby & Debbie

“ I am so sorry to hear of Herman's passing. I understand he went by Ken, but he always went by Herman to me . I will fondly remember our discussions of politics and God. Two subjects that most people won't generally engage in, but Herman and I seemed to have an affinity for those two things. My prayers are with his wife, daughter and all the rest of the family. Herman was a special light, but I believe he is with our Lord.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of my dear friend. I am at a loss for words behind the passing of my old neighbor and current friend, Ken. Ken and his brothers were sweet little busy bodies and very humorous. I won't go into all the fond memories but just know he will be missed.

“ I will miss you forever. You were the first person to call me Liz without me having a problem with it, and the only person I would fight over some Mac and Cheese with. You always had my back even to the point of coming all the way to Alabama State University to beat someone up for me because they laid they hands on me. You were my ride or die growing up and the one I would get in trouble with especially when we played in the water outside the house. This world has lost one of the dopest people ever, but Heaven gained a soldier. I love you Ken, my cousin, my fam, my friend. 💕💕💕

Well I had the pleasure of knowing him for a short period but from day one you knew he was a kind person he moved with a common personality I only knew him for a few days we started working together around Thanksgiving and it was a issue with his direct deposit and I could not let this man get off work that day with no money in his pocket didn't know him from Adam's cat but I knew he was a good guy so I told him to come by my house and I gave him a few dollars and he paid me back and never stopped thanking me so I will end it like this Farwell my friend just have that same smile when we meet again rest well
