“ Dearest cousins Charlene and Jan: So sorry to hear of Aunt Hilda's passing. You were the cousins I knew the best because you lived the closest of any of the family, and I appreciate all the things that you and Aunt Hilda and Uncle Charles did for Mother. My family's love is here for you if you need a shoulder.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss but it was Hilda's gain. It is a peace to know that she was ready to meet her Lord. She had a very long and good life. I pray that you all will be comforted by the Lord.##imported-begin##Charles & Edith Wall##imported-end##

“ Rejoicing for Hilda who is now with the Lord. C.S. Lewis writes in "The Last Battle" about life here vs in Heaven: "(Our life here has) only been the beginning of the real story... (Our life here has only) been the cover & the title page. Now at last they were beginning Chapter One of the great Story which no one on earth has read; which goes on forever; in which every chapter is better than the one before."

So I rejoice for Hilda that she has begun the Real Story & real living, but pray that you, the family, might know the grace and comfort of the Lord during this time of separation.##imported-begin##Chuck Wall##imported-end##

“ Jan & Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Your mom was my very first Sunday School teacher so many years ago ther at Avondale Alliance. I fondly remember she always read the story for the week directly from her Bible, never from the teacher's book and she was always prepared and cheerful. She will be greatly missed and most fondly remembered. Praying for your family.##imported-begin##Carol Helton Hurtado##imported-end##
