“ My wife and I know Phyllis and Homer from our church VLC in Conyers... As others have said, he always had a smile and hug for you no matter if you were a member or visitor... he had a great sense of humor and it helped us even when he did not know our troubles. We are grateful to God for the time we shared and are comforted that we will meet again in Heaven where troubles are a thing of the past. We grieve with Phyllis and family and standby to assist in any way when needed! Mo and Fran Milan

“Homer always had a big smile and a hug for us every time he saw us. One could never go wrong having him for a friend. We were so blessed. Now you are home with our Lord and smiling and hugging all your family and friends there. You are fully healed, at peace, and full of untold joy! We will be joining you someday soon. Keep watch. Hallelujah!

We are so blessed to know Homer. He always greeted us at Sunday School with a genuine and bright smile. He had a great sense of humor. I loved the way he put his arm around Phyllis as they sat down. You could tell that he loved her very much.

Because Homer loved the Lord, we can be assured he is with him now, rejoicing because his new journey in eternity has just begun. He had a wonderful welcome home, and is preparing to show us around heaven when we come!

Rest In Peace until we meet again. Don't worry, Phyllis will be well cared for! Deborah and Ed

“ We will always remember Homer for the love of God that exuberated his life. He was not ashamed of the gospel of Christ. We will miss his warm smile and encouraging words. We know that he is in the presence of God. As the scripture says, "Absent from the body, present with the Lord". Our condolences goes out to his beloved wife Phyllis, children and grandchildren, and relatives. Be encouraged that we will see Homer again. With much Love, Sandra and Eli Matias.
