“ What a wonderful, sweet man!! Bud was such a joy to know and be around. Always interested in the welfare of our family, always smiling, hugging, and trying not to lie about his golf game!! He has been such a strong influence on us and we sought his counsel often. He never missed an opportunity to say 'I love you' and we will cherish our memories of him. Now his 'faith has become sight' and he can rest from all his labors. Ms. Robbie, we love you and your family and are praying for comfort during the coming days.

“ So very sorry for OUR loss and most certainly YOU the family. Such high respect for such a God led man and a man who served the Lord! May God surround you with His comfort, we will miss him terribly. I enjoyed serving along side of him. You the family should be so proud of his life well lived in God's service. Lisa and I send our love.

Theresa, I am so sorry about the loss of your father. Most of us are Daddy's girls. I still miss my Daddy, and he died in 1982. I feel he's always with me, and I'm sure your Daddy will be watching over you.
