“ Mrs. Langley will forever be remembered in my mind at least for her staunch independence and caring. She 'adopted' my wife and her horses for years, honoring her as she would a daughter. Always seeming to be optimistic and friendly, Mrs. Langley indeed knew what she approved of and what she didn't. She was like family, and I will always be grateful for her friendliness and generosity. I always told her she was a saint; now she is one for certain! - Larry Martin

“ Aunt Ida Mae was a really good Aunt, Friend, and fellow christian. She is going to be missed by many. So many fond memories of growing up around her !!! Her house is where I helped clean my first squirrel at around 4 or 5 years old !!! I can remember being rock to sleep by mama at her old house the Pates owned. She could make the best banana pudding there was and she always wanted to make sure I got some when I was around her!!!! Love you Aunt Ida Mae! Until we meet again !!!!!
