“ Mom, I never got to tell you how lucky I was to have you for a Mother-in-Law; but, I think you knew. You used to tell me how impressed you were with my artistic abilities; however, in truth, it was you who created something more wonderful than anything I could ever draw. Your love, your strength of character, and your devotion to God created a family of truly remarkable people, one of whom I was lucky to marry. I never thanked you for raising a son who is the best father and husband any woman could ask for. I never thanked you for being such a loving and supportive Grandma to our daughter (whose love of cooking comes straight from you). I hope that as you look down from Heaven, you are smiling upon all your successes...your children and your grandchildren who will carry your love, strength of character, and faith with them for the rest of their lives. We love and miss you.##imported-begin##Angela Markwalter##imported-end##

“ Dear Irene,

For over 50 years you have been more a sister and best friend than an 'in-law'. You always made me feel warm and comfortable ; sharing walks , faith, family stories or just grabbing a sofa to watch TV . It was always enjoyable with you .

You didn't like 'mush' so instead of words you lived and showed love in all you did and gave of yourself . Your faith and love of family was never more apparent than when you told me "if the Lord wants me, I'm ready ; until then I'm going to fight like a tiger." Fight you did, until you knew your place in heaven was being prepared.....and you willingly let go.

Irene , I believe your spirit was with John, Brian, Gary, and Elaine as they planned your funeral service. It was wonderful and joyful, even as it was heartbreaking for them. . The family pictures told the stories of the loving wife, Mom and grandma , the songs were glorious, the cemetery has already become a place of solitude and comfort for them . Irene, you would have loved seeing all the friends and family within your home, enjoying food, stories and sharing clean-up . John was right in knowing that it was the warmth of your home that should be shared.. You trained them well.!

You lived your life to spend eternity with the Lord ; I can only imagine that first heavenly hug tht you so deserved and the one your brother gave that I so miss... ..

May your reunion with 'my honey' and your parents be as joyous as mine will be , with guidance from your example.

Peace forever,

“ John, we hated so much to lose such a good and supportive member of our extended family. When Angela married Gary, not only did we gain a remarkable son-in-law, but a whole family of remarkable goodness and strength. We value our time with all of you.

“ Mom,

I miss you so very much! I love you and know that you are with grandma, grandpa and uncle John. Brian, Elaine and I will take good care of Dad. Your funeral was beautiful. Your granddaughters did a wonderful job of the readings. Your music you picked out was perfect. I love you and miss you.
