

Irene Southard Harrison

August 19, 1918 - November 30, 2006

HARRISON, IRENE ALMA SOUTHARD - Irene Alma Southard Harrison, age 88 of Lawrenceville, was called home to be with her Lord, Thursday, November 30, 2006. Funeral Service will be held 2:30 PM Sunday, December 3, 2006 at Gloster Baptist Church, Lawrenceville, Georgia. Rev. Raymond Wilson will officiate. Burial will be in Bethesda United Methodist Church Cemetery, Lawrenceville. She was preceded in death by her husband, Curtis Harrison and son, Paul Harrison. Mrs. Harrison is survived by her Sons & Daughters-in-law: Jerry & Ann Harrison, Maurice & Martha Harrison, Steve & Carol Harrison and Tim & Beverly Harrison, sisters-in-law: Ada Harper, all of Lawrenceville, Arvilla Boggs, Buford, Sybil Harrison, Alpharetta; 8 Grandchildren, 9 Great-Grandchildren, 8 Great-Great Grandchildren; Several Nieces & Nephews. Mrs. Irene Harrison was a Christian, a native of Gwinnett County and a hard working farmer. She was Baptized in 1934 and was a devoted member of Gloster Baptist Church for 72 years. She served her Lord by teaching the young people in Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. Irene Harrison never met a stranger and no one was ever turned away from her door. She always said you could not reach people to know the Lord if you closed the door on them. She was a great mother to her sons and a very special grandmother to her grandchildren. She instilled in her children to be strong Christians and to do right by others. Her father, William "Shelt" Southard and her mother, Della Ann Clark Southard, raised her sisters and brothers in the town of Gloster, Georgia. She met her husband, Curtis

Harrison in Gloster and was married on December 25, 1934 in Lawrenceville. They purchased the family farm and raised their family in Lawrenceville. Flowers accepted or in lieu of flowers, memorials to the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital , 975 Johnson Ferry Road, NE, Suite 550, Atlanta Georgia 30342, Attention: Diane Lee. The family will receive friends Saturday, December 2, 2006 from 12-9 PM at the Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30045. 770-962-3100. “ Words cannot express the sorrow I feel at this time, but I must rejoice because I know that Irene is dancing with Jesus. God reminded me that just as He provided a loaf of bread for Irene when she needed it, He is Jehovah-Jireh and will provide every bit of comfort that the family and friends need at this time. He is also Jehovah-Shalom, the Lord of Peace and he will provide the peace that only He can give. Be blessed in knowing the name Irene means Messenger Of Peace. That is what Irene Harrison brought to the people that knew her. She truly was a one of a kind gemstone and we are all blessed from knowing her. May God bless all the family and friends.##imported-begin##Paulette Irene Fowler##imported-end##

“ Please know that your family is in my heart and prayers during this time of loss. My mother, Ada Lee (Mrs. Roy T. Lee) passed away October 25 of this year. Both of my partents thought so highly of Irene and considered her a very dear friend. I remember numerous visits with my parents to her home during my years at Bethesda Elementary. S(teve and I attended Bethesda Elementary together.) I pray that you will find comfort in the fact that Irene was a Godly woman and will spend eternity in heaven. God bless!! “ I knew Irene as the "milk lady". My parents would visit her to buy fresh milk and considered her to be their friend.
I met her when I went with my parents to her house on one occasion. She was a wonderful person. She will be missed by everone that knew her.
May God's love comfort her family at this time.
