“ Hi Carol and Ray-

Prayers to you and your family in your mom's departure. I know that you realize you didn't "lose" her but she is now with the One she talked about, taught about, sang about all these years. But I know we're human and the hurt we experience. Mother died first and I felt the Holy Spirit giving HIs Comfort since that day years ago now. We grew up with you both and your family and there are memories that will never be forgotten. Thanks for sharing your parents with so many people.

I remember the song "Working The Road" which is exactly what your family did.

I remember those Sundays you ate with us and your mom saying "I don't need rouge. I just use lipstick" and she did spreading lipstick on her cheeks - I borrowed that wisdom from her to this day.

When Mother had surgery, we ate at your house and I can still remember what we had - it was delicious!

Your dad tried to tell me about "those Beates" (I often wondered if my dad put him up to it) but I still love The Beatles to this day!

But I also still love to sing gospel music. In fact, I am at a country church in Gratis where Marion Prather is pastor (remember him and his mom Evelyn who taught the youth?) and I sing with my best friend and singing partner of close to 40 years. I hope you two are still singing.

Prayers and Love to You All,

“ Carol, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She looks like a sweet loving woman. Even though her time has come to make her transition into what we believe is a glorious and expanded state, for the loved ones who wait behind her absence creates a space in the heart that only time and God's gentle presence heals. I send you healing love.##imported-begin##Mary Ellen Rand##imported-end##

“ Carol & Family,
I am praying for you at this time following your sweet & godly mother's home going. Meeting her years ago at Shorter was a joy. What wonderful memories we have of our mothers' sweet love, encouragement, and faithful service for the Lord. What a comfort to know that they are with Jesus.
Love,

“ Ron and I wish with our whole hearts that we could be there, but time will not allow us. Aunt Irene was such an example of true Christian, and the BEST Pastor's wife.

We were so thrilled your dad married us, as well as my brother-in-love, and your mother had as big of a smile on her face as my mom did. She will be greatly missed, but she is rejoicing in Heaven and wouldn't want us to be sad. My heart goes out to you and Ray and your families, and just know that you are in my prayers. RT and Irene raised two beautiful children who have served The Lord as they did, and Ray, you HAVE served Jesus, with your work, and your own life. I love you all!##imported-begin##*Drs.
