“ Joy - I just heard about Sister Irma's passing (today is Friday, 11/11/11). I had no idea and was shocked. My condolences to you and your family.

Your mother was a true inspiration to me and I loved her very much. She was a blessing to my entire family for many years.

She leaves a wonderful legacy of what it is to live a christian life and to serve others as she served the Lord and walked out her faith.

May God comfort you and your family during this time. I can see her smile and know that she is shouting with the saints even now!!

Love you,

“ Bro. Stover, Joy, and Family:

I'm so sorry for your loss! Memories of Sis. Stover are filling my mind so vividly. I always enjoyed coming over to play with Joy after church on Sunday afternoon. Sis. Stover and her mother-in-law would be busy in the kitchen preparing Sunday dinner while Joy and I were playing. The dinners were always delicious to say the least. I miss those days terribly. May the Peace of God and His comfort cover you all like an oversized blanket (more than enough). My prayers are with the family of Sis. Irma P. Stover!###imported-begin##Mindy Gregory Korink###imported-end##

“ I will always remember Sister Stover. When I was a little girl I would go to her house on Sunday afternoon to play with her daughter Joy. I enjoyed going to their house so much. Sister Stover was so gracious and always made anyone who came into their home feel welcome and always had a gret meal on the table. She will truly be missed!##imported-begin##Alicia Green Lancaster##imported-end##

“ My Precious Pastor's Wife and the one who led me to the Lord Jesus in prayer of salvation at age 5 years old...she conducted our Children's Church at Lawrenceville Church of God. She was the epitome of Christian example. Her meek spirit and circle of love was all encompassing. I truly LOVE Sister Stover and rejoice that she is enjoying the many rewards our dear Lord has prepared for her THERE. Sympathy to Brother Stover, Joy Beth, Patsy and all family members.
