“ In my 64 years, there have been only a very few men that I can say I truly admired; Jack was one. Never a disparaging word, always a positive attitude - a true friend. I'm honored to have been associated with him and will miss him dearly.

We remember fondly our many years as neighbors and friends sharing the challenges of raising children in the old Clairmont Terrace neighborhood. “ My condolences to all the Bouska family. I have fond memories of Jack in my early days of territory manager training at Amoco in Atlanta. Jack was one of the veterans who broke me in and I always enjoyed his mischievous wit and ways that made him fun to work with and be around. Sorry that I can't pay respects in person as I'm assisting an ailing brother who is hospitalized here in Destin and likely here into Friday. Pray the Holy Spirit will be with you and grant you His peace in your time of mourning.

“ I flew with Jack a time or two when we worked together at Travel Air 12 or so years ago, and we ran into each other a few times since then. I remember Jack as usually being of stern countenance. However, with a small injection of humor into the situation we were in, he would would easily break into an almost mischievous grin. Once when we were switching crews, we were able to fly Jack home. We had a long layover or perhaps were overnight. Jack suggested we take his personal vehicle so we could get around and find a good place to eat.
3 to 4 years ago I spoke with Jack about switching to the new aircraft the company was adding to the fleet. I remember Jack said he was going to pass on that for now , because his wife particularly needed him around the time he would have been away for training. I appreciate Jack for those examples of selflessness and devotion, and for his service to our country in the Army.

“ We truly loved Jack, his kindness and big heart touched all those who came into contact with him. He shall have a special place in heaven above the clouds and blue skies he enjoyed on earth. My wife and I are so grateful that we got to spend some quality time with Jack and June at their home this summer. I shall always remember his wit, charm , big smile and strength. That strength will help us to carry on with out him.
