“ We are so sorry for your loss. We've really enjoyed getting to know Jack over the past few years while working with him on his accounting. He always shared stories about his grandchildren, memories of coaching baseball, and talked about how much he enjoyed his annual trips to Tybee Island with Cathy. I liked working with him because he took so much pride in everything he did. If his business checkbook was out of balance a few cents, he wanted to know exactly where so he could make the correction. Jack will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you all.
