“ I will miss Mr. Jack.

He was always kind to me and my mom. We cleaned for him for 8 yrs We also knew Mrs Ann and loved them both. They became like family to us. He was always seeing how we were doing and really listened. Mrs Anne loved her bird what nots but they fell so easily from her little ceramic tree. One day one fell and Mr. Jack just shoved it in his pocket. He knew she would be upset so he took care of it for us. That was how he always was. I will surely miss him.

“ Oh how I adored my beloved “Miss Ann & Mr. Jack!” This world got a little bit darker when they left it but what a joyful reunion in Heaven! I remember Mr. Jack letting me call him “Mr. Jack in the box” when I was very young and when I got older, I told him that I suppose I was too old to call him “Mr. Jack” anymore and he told me that he’d “like it very much if I’d go ahead and keep right on calling him Mr. Jack”and so I always have, and I always will! The memories that flood my mind of time spent at Tybee Island or simply playing downstairs in the playroom on Bryant St. where I discovered Winnie the Pooh and my desire to become a teacher still make me smile! Even now, I sit here in tears knowing this world has lost one of the best men I’ve ever known, and I’m not sure I ever got the chance to tell him that. I love you Mr. Jack in the Box! Thank you for.....everything! Give Miss Ann a hug for me and tell her I’m trying to do right by her name! Carroll, Tom, Mandy, and family, please know how much we love all of you and how very sorry we are! What a wonderful daddy and granddaddy you all were blessed with! 💜
