“ My precious Aunt Jackie I am so glad that we have been talking several times recently and I never dreamed that you were in any kind of condition like this. We talked about old memories the fun we had growing up things that we did tricks we played on certain ones of your sisters. We went down memory lane a lot over the last month I sure will miss talking to you and was so looking forward to visiting with you pretty soon. Prayers for Randy and Ricky. ❤️🎉

“ Jackie Green Griffeth was the last surviving sibling of my deceased father, William Perry Green. Growing up in Duluth, Georgia, I spent a lot of time with my grandmother, Mrs. Charles Thurlow Green and my aunt Jackie Green. I remember many afternoons under Jackie's care. In recent years we would have long phone conversations. I send my sympathy to her sons, Randy (Joanne) and Ricky.
