“ I am sincerely sorry for your loss. No matter who we are, we have either felt or will feel the sting of death. But there is hope for all of mankind, for the Bible says that "...God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:3, 4) All of us believing in God's word eagerly look forward to the time when these words will be a reality; until then, we must continue to lean on Jehovah God for strength to make it through these difficult times.
My condolences,
