“ Lily and family - our hearts grieve with you over Jack's passing--it was such a shock and we can only imagine what you are going through - we have always loved being with you guys at all of our old family get-togethers - and of course over these last few years it has been hard for all of us to do that - we are comforted as you all are that Jack served his Lord and now has been called home along with so many other family these last few years. We also know you have a wonderful, loving family to provide support and love during this very very difficult time.##imported-begin##Ken, Sue, John and Kenny##imported-end##
