“ I met Jake when he was just a toddler before Wendy was born, so he Was the baby then . So I've always called him baby Jake .which he will always be My baby Jake. He is truely missed . He always called me Memaw and in my heart he did feel like my grandchild. Their family is my family too .I love them very much and I pray that God will give them peace and comfort. It will be a rough road to travel, but with God's help his Grace and all our prayers . It"ll make it somewhat easier for sure. Until we meet again Baby Jake . You'll always be here in my heart!!! 💕🙏🙏

“ Jake was always so sweet and so funny. I will always remember Jake playing football (probably age 7 ) with my Jake. Terry was coaching the boys that year . Jake Garner would not keep his mouth Guard in his mouth and the ref kept blowing the whistle over and over and over again. Thought Terry would loose his mind .! Not sure if we got many plays off that year. Jake Garner you will always be in my heart .... Tracy Love

“ Tracy and Family, I'm so very saddened about Jake! He was one of my all time favorite kindergarten students. He was cute as a button and full of wit. He brought your rent money to school one day for ice cream money. We figured he wanted to treat the entire class for the rest of the year! 🤔 ( A friend of yours came and got it for you)! I know you have many, many wonderful memories of Jake, too. I will continue to keep you and your family in my prayers. I'm so sorry. ❤️
