“ I answered an ad in the scene magazine musician section in the early 90's. It turned out the number i called was a guy i knew named Don Soldan. He told me to show up at a certain time at a house in lakewood that was Jimbo's house. Quickly Jimbo and I became great friends and that friendship would last for decades. I will never meet anyone like that crazy dude ever again! We would talk on the phone and crack up for hours. And we always talked about getting the band back together. Skin-n-bones forever brother!!! I will miss you my friend.
