“ I knew Mr. Brown from living in his house and on his former property. I rented the house at 897 Winding Trail for 4 years which was the best place I ever lived. I did not know it but Mr. Brown was still living when I lived there. The grounds including the lake afforded so many wonderful opportunities to experience nature. I always wished I could have known Mr. Brown, a genius who designed and built such a great property. So Mr. Brown, thank you for creating such a small 6 acre paradise in the middle of Lawrenceville, GA. I loved living there, and you were a true artist and designer.

“ We remember sharing many times with Jim and Margaret at the ball park. Jim was a very generous man and supported Dixie Youth Baseball and many other causes.

With our thoughts and prayers to all the family.

“ Very sorry to hear that Mr. Brown has passed. My husband and I always enjoyed hanging out with him at our favorite Mexican watering hole back in the late 1990's. He had some of the best stories and seemed to live a full and happy life. RIP Jim.
