“ Mr. Flake (as my brother and I still call him all these years later) was like a second father to us growing up. He always called me Deborah Ann, regardless of if I was in trouble or not.

He was one of the happiest and most positive people I know. Always making us laugh and telling stories.

He was, to my Dad, something that none of us could ever be. That was a friendship rich in gold. There will never be another person like him. Man, I'm going to miss his voice, his laughter and smiles, and his stories.

Godspeed my friend. I know you were tired and ready. We all love you and will miss you!

Love, Debbie - Tony and Josh
