“ Beverly and family, I am so sorry that Jim suffered so much. I know your hearts are broken and you will have a void inside your heart for a very long time. I know that you are thankful that he is no longer suffering, but that knowledge does not erase the pain of your loss. I pray that you knowing others are praying for your comfort will bring you peace. I love you, Bev.

“ My sweetest memory of Jim: pulling up in the driveway and finding Daddy and Jim sitting in the shade, hot from working in the garden, talking. They had a friendship of their own. It was sweet and made Daddy happy. Love him for that! ”

It is a blessing to have known Jim and Beverly and Hazel and Charlie. Jim was a true gentle and kind man. He had great conversational skills I thought and a wonderful command of the English language. I share in your sadness. May God bless and comfort all his family and friends.
