“ Jr. was a very special person. True friend. He was a people person. Back when Jr. and Dorothy had a fish bait business my dad got to know him and they became good friends. Jr. just did not meet a stranger. He loved his wife and took care of her during her long illness which speaks much about his character. He was highly respected by many in the fire dept. and has a special place in their hearts. He will really be missed.##imported-begin##Michael Whatley##imported-end##

“ Most new him as Jr. and he was James to me. James & Dorothy's lives are an example to us all that God will test us. James humble spirit and his quick smile will last forever for those fortunate to have known him. James would always place others first with his time and resources. James was a man of patience and resolve. Mr. James was always ready to wet a hook! Fishing teaches us patience. James and Ms. Dorothy are united in their Heavenly home and God is pleased. Our prayers for comfort reach out to the family during this time.
