“ Jim Rutland is the Father-in-Law of my daughter Elizabeth, and the Grandfather of her 2 sons, Joshua and Mason. Jim had the love and respect of his daughter-in-Law and her sons. Young Mason has told me in the past that "Poppy" was "cool" and fun to be around. I never really got to know Jim very well. As In-laws though, when we were with them, I always enjoyed his company. We could talk about anything and he would always have a strong knowledge of whatever the subject matter might be. I wish that I could have gotten to know Jim better. I think that he and I had a lot in common. My wife, Christine, likes Jan very much and admires her energy, and her positive attitude! Jan is always fun to be around! She's "real people" Jim was a good father. He and Jan raised 2 very fine children, and while they may not know it, they are loved by everyone on this side of the family. It is our hope that Jim has found peace and that his soul will be refreshed in Heaven. While there surely be grief and pain for all who knew and loved Jim, it is now that we should celebrate the life of this wonderful man. Jim Rutland, Father, Husband, and Friend. . . . rest easy Poppy, you'll not be forgotten, but revered by all who have known you.

All our Love, Phil and Christine Robinson
