“ Uncle Ferrell and Aunt Jo Beth have been a big part of my life for as long as I can remember. They built their first house in 1950 next door to where I grew up. Ferrell was 23 years old when they built it. This house was one of three new houses he built on Tom Smith Road. He told about how he and Jo Beth paid for the building material as they built the houses...the houses were paid for when they finished building them. That's an amazing accomplishment. In 1962 my husband Jerry and I had the privilege of buying the first house they built. I still enjoy living in it today just because I know who built it.

There are no words to say how I miss being able to visit with Ferrell. His mind was so sharp and and I loved going down memory lane with him.

So thankful he was my Uncle Ferrell. Love Dianne
