“ My name is Brenda Allen. I am a daughter of Joe Adamson, who worked with Jimmy Wages at Railway Express Agency. I think I recall Daddy calling him J.R. Wages, sometimes. My father passed away in November, 2013. He spoke of Mr. Wages often, and one day when I was visiting with Daddy, we decided to give him a phone call. Daddy was thrilled to get to talk with Mr. Wages, if only for a few minutes. They both had difficulty hearing each other, but I hope Mr. Wages was glad to hear from my father. I worked at Railway Express Agency (also known as REA Express and have fond memories of the people who worked there. Mother & Daddy also had a long marriage. They were married one month short of 71 years before Mother passed away. May God bless your family at this time. It is hard to give up our loved ones, no matter their age.

“ Many Sunday afternoons were spent with Jimmy and Florine in the quiet of the screen porch of their home, in the garden, walking down to the creek, always with lots of conversation and stories. Jimmy loved the open spaces and the "outside".

“ He was one of the hardest working people I have ever known. He enjoyed his family, his farm, cows and sharing produce from his garden with others. and he was a wonderful uncle. Dennis Strickland

“ So many good memories of Jimmy, such a precious man. I loved my visits, sitting on the back porch watching the cows and the birds and just talking. He will be missed but I am thankful to have known him.
