“ One of my favorite memories is when James and Jack and I spent time with our grandparents in Calhoun. We didn't have toys so we made our own. We played all day and swam in the creek and had the best time brothers could have. I'll miss my big brother. Love, your little brother Joey.

“ Oh Brother James, what a piece of work you were! Still remember the first time you visited our Lodge in Allen, Tx. Little did we know what a relationship we would have. We love you and the family and we'll miss your contagious laugh. Rest well brother.
