“ Jim was the first “MADD DAD” I ever met. I met Jim on March 6, 2000 at the Gwinnett Victim Impact Panel. He was one of my first MADD friends and was a “dad” I looked up to. Why? Because he was one of the first men whom I ever heard talk about the loss of their (adult) child and what that crash did to him and his family. He shared his pain, openly and candidly in order to give meaning to Chris’s crash. Jim was an outspoken advocate for Law Enforcement, stronger DUI laws, and for MADD Georgia. He will be missed by so many people that cared for him and still lives in the hearts of those entire he influenced. The largest group that Jim influenced: those drunk drivers who were privileged to have heard his story of Chris and how a choice to drink & drive affected a Navy man, a father, a grandfather, and a strong man. Thank you for sharing your story with all of us...Jim. Your friend always, Cynthia.##imported-begin##Cynthia Hagain##imported-end##
