“ *Aunt Shirley, I wish that we could be there with you. Uncle JA was so lucky to have you there with him and taking such good care of him. He definitely fought the good fight, and even though he isn't here with us anymore he will always be in our hearts! Know that we are thinking about you and and your family and love you very much!

“ Shirley,

Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I am sorry I am unable to be there for you, but I am there in spirit.

I know JA has fought a long hard battle, but he WON! No more suffering, no more pain! He made it Home... Praise God!

God Bless you and your family. May The Lord give you Comfort and Peace.

I leave you my freind with, Psalm 23...

Your Sister In Christ Always,

I love you,
