

James "Jim" Schwarz

January 7, 1949 - April 4, 2010

James Johnston Schwarz of Snellville, GA died on April 4, 2010 after suffering from a Sudden Cardiac Arrest at the age of 61. He was born on January 7, 1949 in East St. Louis, IL to Charles Richard Schwarz and Elizabeth Paula Schwarz (nee Bugh), and spent his formative years in Belleville, IL.

Jim was a graduate of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he majored in geography, met his future wife, and was a distinguished member of the tennis team. After several years working in New York City, he moved to the Greater Atlanta Area to pursue further business opportunities. There, he founded several successful small businesses in addition to making his mark as a Credit Insurance agent.

The success he found in his professional life over the next 33 years enabled him to pursue his greatest passion in life: traveling the world and experiencing its diverse cultures and natural wonders, firsthand. He was an avid fan of sports, and enjoyed competition in all of its forms. In addition, he was a great admirer and supporter of the performing arts, and loved to attend the opera, symphony, and ballet.

He is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Judy Ann Schwarz (nee Mueller); two sons Timothy Bugh Schwarz (Tanya) of Irvine, CA and Andrew Arthur Schwarz (Brittany) of Snellville, GA; brothers Douglas Bugh Schwarz (Margaret) of Sequim, WA and Jeffrey Bolling Schwarz of Alamosa, CO; nephews Brent and Jeffrey; nieces Kimberly and Elizabeth, and extended families. His love, humor, and passion for life will be greatly missed.A
