“ Dear Roger Hugh, Benny, Gerald and Jane: I was devastated to read about Ronnie in the newspaper. I loved him, as I do each of you. The only pig I ever held, Ronnie put in my arms! I remember going out to the field one afternoon and getting 4 watermellons for supper for Aunt Bernice--she fed all of us supper. I want you to know how sorry I am that I could not come. All my love and sympathy. Elaine (Lester's daughter)##imported-begin##Elaine Amerson Sweatland##imported-end##

“ To all the member of Ronnie's family:

Ronnie was a true friend that will be forever missed. I have known Ronnie since childhood and was his neighbor in Milledgeville for many years. Ronnie was truly a strong man in many ways . He dealt with the loss of his parents at an early age and was able to deal with being on his own at a much earlier age than most of could imagine.

Ronnie had a great sense of humor, was fun to be with, was like a brother, could always be trusted, and one that could always be relied on in a time of need.

Ronnie you will be missed and I will carry great memories of you to my grave. May God be with and bless your family during the coming days.....

Your friend forever,

“ Sandra, I am so sorry to hear about Ron's passing. I worked at GMC until 7:30 tonight so I was unable to attend the visitation. I am feeling for you and your son and daughter. The two times I met your husband he was so full of life. An easy person to be around and so good looking. You and he were so cute together. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I could give you great insight about all this grief, but I am at a loss. Take care of yourself. Love, Robin##imported-begin##Robin Poole##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of my Beloved Friend Ronnie,
Know that I send to you each and all my earnest condolences upon your loss. Ronnie and I grew up together in Milledgeville and were the dearest of friends for many years. He was like my brother and often ate with me and my family living a few houses away in Vinson Heights. Ronnie was among the greatest of my supporters when for years I played sports. During my years of playing football at the University of Georgia, Ronnie often frequented the fames and came by McWorter Hall with my brother Mike for time together and a night on the town.

I remember Ronnie as a strong, happy, upbeat person of deep faith and immense character. He was a geat driver, a man who from his teen years could manage a car like no one else I ever knew. I recall our mutual love of Steppenwolf adn the many times we spent evenings together in that small town we loved and enjoyed.

Ronnie once got me out of a ticket and I will never forget the lesson I learned and the kindness he showed by that act. Ronnie was a strong man, a tough minded person who could get things done. He was an immaculate dresser having gone to GMC and integrated the military mindedness of proper protocols in dress. In many ways, Ronnie raised himself having dealt early with significant losses including his parents at much too young an age.

I have always remember Ronnie with much love and warmth and paused upon hearing of his death in sorrow and prayer for you and in thanks for his wonderful meaning in my life.

Know this, you husband and father was a true friend, a loyal and dependable person, an athlete himself, and one very popular all his life. I will always remember him with great regard and affection.

Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for awhile and leave footprints on our hearts. And we are never, ever the same. That was Ronnie for me. "A friend is someone who reaches out for your hand...and touches your heart." Again, that was the type of person I knew Ronnie to be.

Blessed was he, God's faithful servant.
